INTERN

ASP offers internships in many elements of theater: stage management, design, marketing, development, education, arts advocacy, and arts administration. We would love to mentor you! Most internships are for ages 18+ and are at least a semester in length. Internships are unpaid. College credit possible. ASP currently does not offer acting internships.

Apply at:

Community Engagement

Open Rehearsals
Get a glimpse into the process of making theater through our Open Rehearsals, which include a director's talk, rehearsal of scenes, and a Q&A. Free!

Post-Show Conversations
Discussions with cast members and special guests follow each Sunday matinee. Engage in a conversation on relevant themes or our unique artistic approach. Join us!

Student Matinees

A series of 10 am matinees aimed towards accommodating middle and high school students. $15 per student. Contact: boxoffice@actorsshakespeareproject.org

Beyond The Stage

ASP has a range of community programs for various audiences, from youth to elders to multi-generational. Get involved with a workshop, class, or special event inspired by Shakespeare's plays and themes. Or come see a pop-up performance in a neighborhood near you.

INSIDE Schools

ASP teaching artists are in residence at several Boston Public Schools throughout the year. Our "SWAT" (Shakespeare Words and Tactics) team can also craft a workshop or residency tailored to fit the needs of your individual school. Interested in creating a personal, visceral experience of Shakespeare for students? Contact us to book a workshop today.

INSIDE D.Y.S.

ASP teaching artists work in residential programs for court-involved youth aged 12-21 under the custody of the Massachusetts Department of Youth Services (DYS) Teaching artists and youth explore Shakespeare's plays, often devising original pieces based on themes that resonate with their lives today. Please consider supporting this important work.
